Quarterly Investment Option Update

30 September 2021

Aim and Strategy

The option invests in a portfolio of assets diversified across asset classes, sources of returns (from different asset types) and investment managers. Exposure to these assets can be through investment in underlying funds, or through direct investment into an asset. The option may be suitable for investors seeking exposure to a portfolio of diversified assets with the potential to deliver stable, risk-adjusted returns above inflation. The option is managed with a focus on income and franking credits for investors in retirement, who are drawing pension payments that are exempt from taxation. The option has been designed specifically for investors in or close to retirement.

Market Review

A complex macroeconomic and political backdrop characterised the September quarter, pulling markets in varying directions. Major themes included ongoing fears on the persistency of inflation, a focus shifting towards living with COVID-19 rather than persisting with lockdowns - particularly given much of the population has now had the opportunity to be vaccinated - and the mixed interpretation of central bank communications leading to continued speculation on the path towards 'normalisation' of monetary and fiscal policy. Geopolitics was also heavily in focus, as the US withdrew from Afghanistan, leading to a swift and unopposed takeover by the Taliban regime. China was also in the spotlight during the period, coming under criticism for adopting an apparent conciliatory tone towards the Taliban, in addition to its continued regulatory crackdown on technology and the property sector amid its continuing broader shift towards 'big government' policy. Later in the quarter, volatility rose in markets on heavily fluctuating commodity prices, as well as the news that major Chinese property developer, China Evergrande Group, had run into financial stress, with concerns that a failure to pay its debts could spread to global markets, given its significant size. This volatility was further exacerbated by concerns on the Biden administration's upcoming tax rises and an impending debt-ceiling in the US, with the risk of a government shutdown possible.
