Portfolio Summary

- > Returns were much improved over the June quarter, concluding what was another positive financial year for the Fund.
- > Growth assets rebounded from the previous quarter
- > We continue to hold equity allocations at neutral level

Investment Option Commentary

The Fund delivered a positive return during the June quarter and recorded a positive result over the financial year. This was a period marked by two distinct halves; a stable, upward trend across most asset classes in the first six months followed by increased volatility in the second half, particularly through early 2018.

Since our last quarterly update, the Fund recouped the losses experienced during the March quarter. Equity markets were particularly strong through the quarter (up 3.0%), helped by further evidence of global growth, supportive interest rate settings and a positive earnings season. These factors also helped equity markets generate double digit returns for the last year. For Australian-based investors, the depreciation of the currency also provided a further boost to the performance of unhedged international equities (5.5% over the quarter and 15.4% for the year). The Australian market also performed solidly, up 7% on the quarter and 9% on the year. The gains were largely driven by the resource sector (up 40% for the financial year) on the back of higher commodity prices and the higher US dollar which boosted the returns of Australian based businesses with offshore earnings. In addition, property and infrastructure investments also generated solid returns for the quarter and year helping to offset relatively modest returns from bonds and alternative strategies.

Fund Positioning and Outlook

Looking forward, we anticipate increased sensitivity to any emerging signs of inflation and how central banks will proceed to fine-tune their monetary policy at this point in the cycle. In addition, there are several geopolitical concerns that are unlikely to be resolved in the near-term, specifically the threat of a China/US trade war, which will add to uncertainty. Whilst we continue to believe equity markets will perform moderately well we remain cognisant of increased volatility in the months ahead. We continue to hold equity exposure at a neutral level (in line with our strategic benchmark) and prefer cash to bonds, as we believe that bonds are at risk of the market potentially underestimating inflationary pressure and future interest rate increases in the US.
